Glades General Hospital OKs 'right-to-die' policy

Patients at Glades General Hospital will have the "right to die" following the board of directors adoption of three policies relating to the terminally ill on Tuesday, Dec. 10.

The board adopted policies dealing with brain death, "no code blue" and terminally ill care. Code blue is a term used for urgent care given to patients whose hearts have stopped or who have stopped breathing.

If the patient is competent, he, two witnesses, the attending physician and two consulting physicians can agree to withhold heroic measures to keep him alive.

Hospital Administrator Patrick Lennon said that if anyone of the parties involved, disagreed, then all efforts would be made to save the patient.

If the patient is incompetent, he explained, family members or a legal guardian can take the patient's place and make the decision with the other parties.

Director Sandra Chambliss said she was concerned because the policy does not allow for pregnant women to decide their fate. She asked that Lennon have that part of the policy reviewed by the hospital's attorneys.

In other action, the board decided to allow staff doctors to lower their minimum professional liability insurance to $250,000 per person and $750,000 per occurrence, as provided by state law.

Until now, doctors were required to purchase physicians to obtain that kind of coverage.

Doctors who have not been receiving that amount of coverage in the past can only obtain it in a series of steps. Four staff physicians do medical malpractice liability insurance in the amount of $1 million per person and $3 million per occurrence. But, according to Lennon, one of the two state insurance companies providing the coverage has made it difficult for not have that coverage now and would not be able to get it in time to practice next year.

Under the circumstances, Lennon said, he was recommending the board lower the coverage to the same amount required by Florida malpractice law.

He said a new state law makes the lower coverage more acceptable to the hospital. Before the law was enacted, when a doctor and a hospital were both sued, and if the doctor was not covered, the hospital would have to pay the whole amount.

Now the claimants can only collect the amount from either party for which that party is responsible. For example, if the doctor were 95 percent guilty, he would have to pay the 95 percent award.

Board members were informed that the annual Christmas party will take place at 8 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 14 at the Elks Club.

Chambliss also presented the board with two plaques from the Glades Area Association for Retarded Citizens in gratitude to the hospital and emergency room staff for performing physical exams for the Special Olympics games.

Charge!

GLADES DAY GATORS took to the field at Tampa Berkeley Prep last Friday and came away 7-0 winners to advance to the state Class A championship Friday, Dec. 13, when they host Baker.

No doubt about it Informal 'poll' picks Gators to win state title

By ERICK KOPP

BELLE GLADE—In an informal survey of 12 Glades area residents, nine tabbed the Glades Day Gators to reign as class A State Champions over the visiting Baker Gators Friday night.

Participants in the "survey" were asked to predict a final score and give a reason for their prediction.

As the two schools prepare to meet for the fifth time in six years, here are the "official" predictions for 1986's outcome.

Belle Glades Police Chief Mike Miller, "David slew Goliath. Glades Day 'Baker 6."

Belle Glades Mayor Tommy Altman, "Glades Day has a fantastic defense. Glades Day 14-Baker 13."

Belle Glades City Manager "Tommy" Strang couldn't come up with a score but vowed Glades Day would end up as the cream of the crop.

Walter Rashley, Administrative Assistant to County Commissioner Ken Adams, "They're both good teams. I've just got a gut feeling. Glades Day 45-Baker 42."

Don Thompson, head football coach at Pahokee High School, "With the character and hard work of the Glades Day team, including Coach Walker, I predict a 14-13 Glades Day win."

Belle Glades City Clerk June Boglioli, "The green Gators have it, 21-14."

City gives approval for several zoning changes

BELLE GLADE—City requests were presented by City Planning and Zoning Director Remar Harvin and dealt with the properties at 630 South Main Street, 618 South Main, and 624 South Main.

Presently residential use, Harvin asked that these properties be rezoned to become potential business addresses because the area is slowly transforming into a business district.

City Commissioner Dan Bythwood and Mayor Altman were quick to raise questions about the proposal.

Altman was concerned about the vagueness of the request, asking what the new businesses would be.

The mayor was hesitant to issue carte blanche rezoning decisions when previous petition were turned down that did not list specific development plans.

At the same time, Bythwood was concerned about barriers that must be constructed to separate the new businesses from the already existing residences, as required by city codes. "Who would be responsible for construction of these barriers?" he asked.

Mike Stevens, a nearby resident, was not pleased about the rezoning until he was promised that a six

BELLE GLADE—A 29 year old Tampa man hitchhiking from Ft. Lauderdale to his home was picked up by two men in a blue van on SR 80 and robbed at gunpoint of $80 cash, a camera and lenses valued at $450 and personal papers then dumped on a dirt road near the Atlantic Sugar Mill.

Detective Rick Radcliff, Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office, said James Richard Johnson was picked up by two white males in a light blue van Tuesday afternoon near the Atlantic Sugar Mill.

Radcliff said the victim described the first man as being 25 years of age, 5-7 to 5-11, build and long hair. Johnson said he was picked up and he has never seen the other suspect.

The driver of the van, described as 25 years of age, 5-7 to 5-11, medium build with brown hair. Johnson said he was wearing a red shirt and blue jeans.

Radcliff said the late '60's Ford van has sliding doors on the side, square windows on the rear doors and was obviously painted with a brush.

He added the suspects to call him at 996-1689 or call 996-TIPS.

Pahokee Housing Authority may be forced to pay damages

By ERICK KOPP

PAHOKEE—A notice for a re-hearing has been filed by the Pahokee Housing Authority in the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals which directs the authority to pay $6,300 in damages to South Florida Sanitation in a four year struggle over garbage collections in the two housing projects.

Mead Maxwell, Chairman of the Board for the authority, said the notice was filed last Friday and if the court allows, they will have 30 days in which to file an appeal.

'A Christmas Carol' to be performed at center

BELLE GLADE The musical adaptation of the English classic "A Christmas Carol" will be performed at 8 p.m. at the Dolly Hand Cultural Arts Center on Wednesday, December 18.

Following its fifth consecutive tour of the country, it is presented by Bill Fegan Attractions, Inc., and brings over 600 previous performances into its experience as the sixth tour gets underway.

The Charles Dickens classic, written in 1843, has not lost any of its magic or spirit in the 140 years since its inception. The mystical effects of the current production, which include falling snowflakes, Ebenezer Scrooge's bed whipping around the stage, Jacob marley's ghost appearing through a cloud of smoke from the fireplace and the 15-foot tall Ghost of Christmas-Yet-to-Com, bring a unique technical timeliness to this staged musical production.

The period of this Christmas presentation is set in 1886 through Charles Jones' adaptation that will perform in Belle Glade.

Circuit Judge Tom Johnson awarded South Florida Sanitation a judgement of $80,901 in damages, extending over a 27 month period, last December.

The company had been collecting garbage from the 400 units in Padgett Island and Fremd Village before the authority terminated its contract in March of '82.

The battle began when South Florida Sanitation nearly doubled its rates over a five month period.

Maxwell said the authority was paying $1,800 monthly before it was increased to $2,800 in November of '81.

It was again raised to $3,200 four months later. The authority decided to cancel its agreement and collect its own garbage.

South Florida Sanitation sued on grounds it had the exclusive franchise agreement for garbage collection in the unincorporated areas of western Palm Beach County.

The authority filed suit claiming the company raised its rates without the county's approval and refused to collect the garbage.

Johnson ruled the authority was in violation of the company's franchise, but denied South Florida Sanitation's request for an injunction blocking the authority from collecting its own garbage.

Maxwell said the authority can pay the judgement and collect its own garbage for less than the company's fee.

"We're using a one man system, just like the city, and even though our main cost of operation is the vehicle we're still able to pick up the garbage for far less than if we were using South Florida Sanitation," said Maxwell.

The board is contemplating expanding its collection service into McClure Village and Stuckey Homes.

The City of Pahokee currently collects garbage at the 115 units in the two projects.

If the authority expands its service, its cost will be much less than the $1,150 per month fee paid to the city.

PAHOKEE OBSERVATION

By Eric Kopp

Congratulations to the Glades Day Gators in reaching the State Championship game for their fifth time in six years.

As John Ennor, head coach of the Baker Gators, said, "We ought to just start scheduling them (Glades Day) regularly."

Tickets are on sale at the school's office. Reserved seating is $6 and bleacher seats are $5.

Being as the state government is telling us where and when we can smoke, it's time to call on them to ban some irritating and potentially dangerous habits of others that drives some of us batty.

1. Designate coffee drinking areas. The most irritating thing about coffee drinkers is they don't drink. They slurp. They don't realize how gratifying the slurping sound is.

If the governor can't see fit to designate their own area, maybe he can enact legislation to force them to consume their drink through straws.

That would surely force them to be quieter.

2. Ban ice chomping. You talk about something that can rattle the nerves of the strongest person. The dreaded ice chomper is even more disgusting than the "slurper."

3. Execute potato chip chomper. The horrible potato chip chomper is just a cut below the ice chomper.

Isn't it disgusting to be enjoying a meal when someone near you is diving into a bag of chips like they were killing snakes?

They shovel the crunchy food into their mouths and chew with such voracity they're unable to close their mouths, thus forcing everyone within 20 miles to listen.

The least they could do is break the larger chips into smaller ones. This one simple courtesy could save numerous assault and battery cases as well as nervous breakdowns.

4. Designate "vehicle parking and talking areas."

Why is it whenever I'm in a hurry there's always two pick-ups parked in the center of the road talking?

The worst part is they won't move. You don't dare get out of your vehicle and raise sand with them because there's always a 600 pound dog in the back of the truck and an arsenal of weapons hanging in the back window.

So there I am. As the mercy of the conversationists. I wait and wait but it doesn't phase them.

The folks haven't talked to each other for at least 30 minutes so I am forced to sit and wait until they catch each other up on the latest gossip.

5. Designate days when professional people can play golf.

If the public was made aware of when doctors, lawyers, and county officials were on the links we could possibly postpone our illnesses, divorces and county business until it was convenient for the professionals.

Maybe the governor could designate Thursday as "golf day" for them.

If we can get him off the course and into his office long enough to do it, that is.

Finally, why is it such a big deal that I have joined the ranks of the miserable?

Everywhere I go folks are saying things like, "I fell out of the chair when I heard you got married," or, "I never thought you would do such a thing!"

Well why not?

I'm a mortal man. I have wants and needs just like everyone else, and these needs have to be taken care of.

My mother never taught me how to make mashed potatoes and I needed someone who knew how.

Don't give up and accept second best

Joshua 7: 6-10. "...Then Joshua rent his clothes... and they put dust upon their heads. And Joshua said, 'Alas, O lord God, why hast thou brought the people over the Jordan at all, to give us into the hands of the Amorites, to destroy us? Would that we had been content to dwell beyond the Jordan.'"

In this story, we see where the men at Ai defeated the children of Israel. This defeat took away their courage to keep trying for the best. In this prayer, they say to God they wish they had not crossed over the Jordan to the promised land, but had stayed back where the land was not so good and things harder. The Lord said to Joshua, "Arise, why have you fallen on your face?" They arose and lived in the promised land.

As we face middle life, we become willing to give up and settle for things that are second best. We become content with poor or fair marriages rather than try to improve them. We become content with our average jobs and no longer try to get ahead.

Don't be content to dwell beyond the Jordan. Don't settle for second best in your life. "Arise, why have you fallen on your face?" The promised land you started out for is just ahead. Go! Dwell in it and be happy. You can do it.

Stifle the AIDS fear mongers

PUBLIC HYSTERIA over AIDS has reached an epidemic proportion that far exceeds the disease itself and the political pressure it creates are needlessly keeping young AIDS victims out of school across the country.

Things have gotten so bad that parents from outside the Glades area are prohibiting their children from traveling into placed like Belle Glade for athletic and other events.

Editorial

Florida's elected officials ought to be trying to calm the panic that is sweeping the nation. Instead, some are propagating it.

State Senate President Harry Johnston and Gov. Bob Graham are among the fear mongers. Graham said last month that students and teachers with AIDS should be barred from the classroom. Johnston did the governor one better by calling for a statewide policy of prohibiting people afflicted with the disease from going to school or having contact with the public.

AIDS, acquired immune deficiency syndrome, is one of the scariest diseases ever confronted. It almost always kills its victims. (The number of cases of AIDS is doubling inexorably each year. There is no vaccine, no treatment, no cure.

SO WHILE it is understandable for the public to be anxious, this new plague needs to be viewed in proper perspective. The anxiety is understandable in theory, but there is ample justification for being reasonable in practice.

The only confirmed method of transmission of the deadly disease is through sexual relations, contaminated needles and blood transfusions. There is abundant evidence that AIDS cannot be spread by mere casual contact—a sneeze, a handshake or being close to someone with the disease.

Not one of the family members of the reported AIDS cases is known to have caught the disease, except for spouses in sexual contact and children born to mothers with AIDS. No nurse or doctor has caught AIDS from a patient. Only two health-care workers have contracted the disease; they apparently got it from a contact with contaminated blood in their work places.

The classroom or athletic field is a highly unlikely place for the transmission of AIDS. The vast majority of doctors, including those represented by the Florida Medical Association, say there is no scientific evidence to keep most children with the disease out of school. They do advise extra precaution in handling AIDS-afflicted toddlers who drool or wear diapers or exhibit such aggressive behavior as biting.

SOME RESTRICTIONS on AIDS victims, children and adults, may be necessary to protect the common interest and slow the spread of this dreadful disease. Those decisions though need to be based on medical evidence rather than unfounded hysteria.

Unless that approach is taken, those afflicted with AIDS will increasingly and unnecessarily be segregated on the basis of panic. The ostracism of school children is just the beginning.

Responsible officials will take care to separate facts and fears in forming public policy. Graham, Johnston and others, unfortunately, have not. Thoughtful Floridians, especially here in the Glades, expect more from the governor, gubernatorial candidates and all government officials.

Local elementary school children enjoy 'Rip Van Winkle' production

BELLE GLADE
Puppets as large as nine feet tall were used to dramatize Washington, Irving's play, Rip Van Winkle for a audience of elementary school students at the Dolly Hand Cultural Arts Center.

The production, presented by the Bits 'N Pieces Theatre of Tampa, is part of a series of plays aimed at local elementary students by Palm Beach Junior College of the Glades.

Director for the center Judy Schiele paid the series consists of a performance every month. October through April, that reaches 600 to 1,100 students each month.

"By filling all the seats, seating them in the aisles and in front of the stage, we have had as many as 1,100 for one performance," she said Friday.

"We expect about 900 kids in two performances today," she said.

Mrs. Schiele said students from Belle Glade, Christian Day, Gladeview, Cove and St. Peter's Lutheran Elementary schools would see the production Friday.

The troupe from Tampa used puppets, depicting characters such as Rip, his wife and Rip's dog.

After the performance, the actors explained how they operated the puppets.

Schiele said when the series began three years ago, the children were restless and inclined to wander up and down the aisles.

Over the years, however, the audiences have become more sophisticated and appreciative, and have learned acceptable ways of showing that appreciation, Schiele said.

A grant from the South Florida Consortium, a group formed to help fund fine arts and festivals, pays for the series in part.

Mrs. Schiele said a state grant helped pay for the Rip Van Winkle performance.

Gators oust Buccaneers 7-0, will face Baker for 1-A championship

By ERIC KOPP

BELLE GLADE—The Glades Day Gators, 7-5, have earned the right to face the Baker Gators, 12-0, for the State 1-A football championship as they defeated Tampa Berkeley Prep 7-0 in the two teams second consecutive sectional meeting.

The Gators utilized a tough defense and four Buccaneer fumbles last Friday to get the chance to avenge last year's 48-7 loss to the maroon Gators.

After senior tailback Jorge Suarez recovered a Buccaneer fumble early in the second quarter on Tampa's 11 yard line, Gator quarterback John Hundley kept the ball on the option play and scored from 7 yards out and added the point after to give the Gator's victory number seven on the year.

Suarez led the Gators in rushing with 82 yards on 14 carries.

"Our defense was extremely well prepared. We recognized and played their tendencies last well," said Gator head coach Byron Walker. Tampa gained only 42 yards on the ground for its lowest rushing total of the season. The Gators recovered two more fumbles inside the Buccaneer 20 but couldn't score.

This Friday night marks the rubber game of the series as Glades Day squares off at 8:00 p.m. against the Baker Gators at Glades Day.

The two squads will face each other for the fifth time with their records even at 2-2.

Glades Day head coach Byron Walker said his team is taking a little different approach to this year's championship game.

"We were a little too serious last year. We're just going to turn the kids loose and let 'em have a little fun," he said.

"In spring practice I didn't see the state finals as a possibility for us, but felt we could win the district championship. But we just kept improving each game and we became more and more optimistic about our chances.

This game is the icing on the cake for us," said Walker.

Baker head coach John Ensor agreed, as his team defeated North Florida Christian, 35-14, last week to gain a chance at winning the state championship a third consecutive time.

"The biggest thing for us is just getting the chance to win the championship," he said.

Ensor said he doesn't feel his team is playing as well this year as compared to last season.

"We played a tougher schedule this year and it took a lot out of us. We're just not playing as well as I would like to see us play. Especially coming up against Glades Day," he added.

Ensor called the Glades Day-Baker meeting an "annual affair" and said he expects a good hard-nosed defensive game.

"This game pits the best 1-A football team in the south against the best in the north," said Ensor.

Ensor said the keys to defeating Glades Day is to first of all stop John Hundley and Jorge Suarez.

"Next we'll have to move the ball, slow them (Glades Day) down, and not make mistakes. There's no doubt it's going to be a low scoring, defensive football game," he said.

Walker said he expects Baker to run the ball right at Glades Day and try to overpower his squad. Defensively he said he expects to see an eight-man front and expects them to attack the gaps.

"The key to us winning is getting field position and maintaining it. We need to play our best defensive game of the year," said Walker.

Walker said his defensive unit has to stop Baker's two outstanding running backs Mitch Thames and Brian Wagner.

Including playoffs, the 6-0, 185 pound Thames has gained 1,300 yards and Wagner, 5-11, 140, has totalled over 1,200 yards rushing.

"They're a veteran ballclub and we're going to have to play the part of giant killer," Walker said.

"I'm very prejudiced towards Glades Day. Glades Day 14-Baker 7."

Pahokee City Council member Ronnie Graydon, "Glades Day of course is going to win, probably by a touchdown."

Lieutenant Mike Mills, Palm Beach County Sheriff's Office-Belle Glade Substation, "My heart's with Glades Day, but on paper it looks like Baker may be the better team. Baker 21-Glades Day 7."

Judge Don T. Adams, always good with a one-liner, couldn't pick a score but couldn't resist playing Henry Youngman one more time. "The Pahokee-Wildwood score comes immediately to mind."

Detective Steve Haller, Palm Beach County Sheriff's Department-Belle Glade Substation, "I'd like you pick 'em."

And, last but not least Dean Jones, staff writer for the Palm Beach Post-Times and Belle Glade's 1985 Citizen of the Year. "It's going to be a big defensive battle. I'll pick Glades Day 1-0."

(It's obvious Dean knows his football.)

When Chief Miller was told his reasoning for a Glades Day victory was a mirror of head coach Byron Walker's he said, "great minds travel the same road."

And this concludes, with much relief, our 1985 championship survey.

Blue Devils fall 60-0 to Wildcats

WILDWOOD—The Pahokee Blue Devils fell to the top ranked Wildwood Wildcats, 60-0, in the class 2-A state football playoffs. The bigger Wildcats and the cold weather proved to be more than the Blue Devils, 6-6, could handle. Wildwood, 12-0, will face DeFuniak Springs Walton Friday night for the state 2-A championship.

High flying Gators—two Glades Day players celebrate last week's win with a "high-five".

Pahokee farmer honored at annual Tri-City dinner

Eugene Mobley helped cook the fish for the annual Tri-City League barbecue last Friday.

BELLE GLADE The annual Tri-City League barbecue was held Friday, Dec. 6 at the Belle Glade City Marina with approximately 300 people in attendance.

County governmental officials and employees attended the December meeting that is traditionally a Christmas celebration featuring the Port Committee's well known and enjoyed fried catfish and barbecued ribs.

The barbecue is a yearly affair co-hosted by the cities of Belle Glade, Pahokee and South Bay.

Palm Beach County Commissioner Ken Adams presented a resolution during the business part of the meeting honoring longtime Pahokee farmer Robert Simonson, who has been active on several public service boards, is in the hospital.

In other business, the committee members elected Charles Potter as a member of the Citizens Task Force and Elaine Roberts as alternate; re-elected to the Palm Beach County Solid Waste Authority, Tom Altman of Belle Glade, Donald Kiselewski of Palm Beach Gardens, William Konrad of Boca Raton and Frank Sineath of West Palm Beach; elected Maria Horenberger of Delray Beach and Mary Hinton of Jupiter to the Treasure Coast Planning Council.

SOUTH BAY City Commissioner Don Tarner enjoyed the food at the Tri-City League barbecue last Friday. Approximately 300 County officials attended the feast put on every year.

Pets make an excellent Christmas present

Christmas is almost here and "it's the season" for gift giving. People frequently consider giving pets as presents.

This may or may not be the ideal gift. Hundreds of animals are given as presents at Christmas, only to be returned the following week.

If you want to give someone a pet for Christmas, ask yourself, if this is something they really want, or is it something I'd like them to have?

Many people enjoy animals but don't want the responsibility of feeding and caring for them on a full time basis.

Small children, especially, tire of "something new" very quickly. The burden of animal care then falls on the parents who probably won't be overjoyed at the gift.

Choosing a pet for someone else can be pretty risky business. Preferences in animals are as varied as the people that choose them.

Remember, this is a lifetime commitment. Some animals live 20 years or better.

Long haired animals require grooming, large animals require exercise, and most pets require annual vaccinations.

Adopting a pet for someone else should truly be considered very carefully.

Other options are: ask the intended recipient if they would like to have a pet. If they would, perhaps they could accompany you shopping to pick one out.

write an IOU, gift wrap it and place it under the tree; buy a stuffed animal and wrap it with a note;

purchase a gift certificate from your favorite pet store or Animal Shelter.

There are many alternatives to choose and be assured of a "match made in Heaven."

Christmas is a joyous time. Giving a pet that may have to be returned could cause unhappiness for your friend and the animal.

Film aims to dispel myths on sugar

For years nutritionists, doctors and others have been saying that sugar is not good for people, that it is fattening, that it is addictive, that it causes hyperactivity in children.

The Sugar Association, a Washington D.C.-based trade group for the sugar industry, has embarked on a nationwide campaign to dispel these and other myths about sugar, but they don't know about it," said Setton.

Powers said the film's objectives are threefold: to show that sugar is safe; that it is an attractive addition to the diets of people with active lifestyles; and to show sugar's role in food technology.

Powers, who has worked in films for 15 years, said he is always learning from his job, and this assignment is no exception.

He filmed an interview with Dr. Harry Keen, a noted metabolic physician, who had conducted a long term study on diabetics. Powers said Keen found that, even diabetics were better off with a 50 percent carbohydrate diet.

"I'm trying to explode the myths about sugar," said Powers.

"For years nutritionists and others have said that refined sugar is bad for you. Actually, a high carbohydrate diet, which is what sugar is, actually helps prevent heart disease."

"Frankly, people have received a lot of bad information about sugar," Powers said.

"The point is, it's a natural food, as opposed to an artificial or synthetic product. It has only 16 calories per teaspoon and not only makes food taste better, but has preservative functions and so forth that make it a valuable addition to the

and the refiner's role also.

Once complete, hopefully by late spring or early summer, the film will be used as an educational tool in schools and for various groups who want to learn more about sugar. Setton said it will probably be shown on commercial and cable television.

"Many people like sugar, but they don't know about it," said Setton.

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION. Frank Powers of the Film Counselors Association shoots footage of cane field for use in half-hour film being made for the Sugar Association stressing the nutritional and dietary roles of this natural sweetener.

The main shot at sugar has been that it is fattening. Supermarkets everywhere are stocked with numerous "sugar-free" products which are snapped up by weight conscious Americans.

Powers said it is wasted money.

"Fat has two times the calories that sugar does," he said. "So many people cut out sugar to lose weight, when they would be better off cutting out fatty foods."

Other myths Powers hopes to dispel are that it is addictive and that it promotes hyperactivity in children.

"Sugar is not addictive, there's no proof of that. As far as hyperactivity is concerned, that's totally incorrect. In fact, before sugar was ever used at the table, it was used as medicine, as a tranquilizer," he said.

The use of sugar in soft drinks and other food products has been on the decline, said Setton. In fact, this year

City Hall becomes art gallery for local artists to display painting

BELLE GLADE every month will be featured at the complex, according to Boglioli, and talent has also been drawn from the local schools.

She said Glades Central High School art students will have their work on display after Christmas.

One of the artists, Diane Richmond Hall of Belle Glade, said she has been painting for 10 years. She studied under Ann Tyler and said Tyler taught her Diane Richmond Hall, lot.

"My favorite medium is oil," Hall said. She said she enjoys painting people and animals because "they start happening."

Hall has had one showing of her works and has a show planned for next year. She said she will be showing all new paintings at the next show.

Hall says recognition is not why she paints. She said she enjoys painting, and color is what attracts her to painting.

She has been commissioned to do some portraits and said she has painted a portrait of Richard Greer. Some of her paintings are for sale.

Hall has painted two in a series for Bank of Pahokee, one for the Banyan Tree and also has work that hangs in South Bay Growers, Sugar Cane Growers and other local businesses.

Another former longtime resident of Pahokee, Marji Laks, has several paintings on display at city hall.

Laks is now a resident of Royal Palm Beach. She also studied under Ann Tyler and also took classes at Palm Beach Junior College. She does some of her work on a commission basis.

Laks is still involved with the Pahokee Women's Auxiliary and has 25 years and paints for pleasure. She does a

She has her work on display at the Royal Palm Beach city hall, the Cobblestone Restaurant, the Bank of Pahokee, Clewiston National Bank, the Palm Beach Hotel and several banks on the coast.

Ruth Carpenter's work is also being shown at city hall. Carpenter is a resident of Pahokee and her family is considered one of the pioneers of the Glades.

She studied art under local artist and instructor Margaret Earwood. Carpenter's work was on display in a showing at the Louisa V. York Library in Pahokee about a year ago. She showed 50 paintings.

Manager says city can expect no quick changes in cable system takeover

BELLE GLADE Belle Glade city residents can expect no immediate changes in cable rates or programming when Cablevision Industries takes over the local cable television system from Sunbelt Cable, Ltd. City commissioners met with Cablevision Industries regional manager Dan Luallen on Wednesday, Dec. 4 to discuss effects of the transfer between the two companies.

Luallen, presenting his company as aggressive and growth-oriented, assured commissioners that Cablevision was not coming in to double their money. They were interested in providing good service to Glades residents.

If necessary, they are willing to pump funds into the system to improve it. Luallen said the Glades had one of the finest cable systems he has seen in areas of this size. There are 6,000 subscribers in Belle Glade, Pahokee and South Bay.

"There seem to be no major technical problems," he said, but added that technicians would be sent for some fine tuning.

City Manager Tom Strang questioned Luallen about a line of communications to be established with Cablevision Industries in responding to residents' complaints. He said many subscribers call city hall when they have problems, and he wanted to know if the company would have a local manager to call on.

Citing problems with representatives of the cable system, he assured Luallen, "If you have personnel problems, you're going to hear about it."

Cablevision Industries wanted to extend the lease to 1996, six years beyond the existing franchise's lease. The company needs the time to recoup its initial investment, Luallen said.

Commissioners were reluctant to grant the cable extension, however, saying the franchise agreement was the one they leverage the city had against the cable system.

Mayor Tommy Altman suggested a compromise of a shorter extension. Luallen agreed to check with the company's owner to see if that would be possible. Altman said if subscribers receive good service, the extension's approval would be no problem.

Commissioners were expected to approve the franchise's transfer at the regular meeting Monday night, Dec. 9.

35 pounds of marijuana to another car. He was booked into the county jail and released on $3,000 bond.

•Beverly Ann Vann, the wife of William Earl Vann, was arrested Tuesday afternoon on charges of delivery of marijuana. Mills said the woman allegedly broke off a corner of what appeared to be a compressed bale of marijuana, and gave it to undercover agents. He said the weight of the suspected weed was 30.9 grams. Mrs. Vann was booked into the county jail and released under a $5,000 bond.

•Donald Edward Hitchcock, 29, U.S. 441, Canal Point, possession of marijuana over 20 grams with intent to sell. Mills said the man was arrested allegedly delivering 45 pounds of marijuana to another vehicle. He was booked into the county jail and released on $3,000 bond.

•Tean Campbell, 33, 255 Barfield Highway, Pahokee, possession of marijuana over 20 grams with intent to sell and trafficking in cocaine. Mills said Campbell was arrested in West Palm Beach allegedly delivering 44 pounds of marijuana and three ounces of cocaine to another car at Jefferson's Department Store. He was booked into the county jail and released under a $10,000 bond.

•Vaughn Campbell, wife of Teian Campbell, possession of marijuana over 20 grams with intent to sell and possession of cocaine. She was booked into the county jail and released under $10,000 bond.

•Daniel Wynne, 27, 12640 169th Court, Jupiter, with possession of marijuana over 20 grams with intent to sell. Wynne was booked into the county jail and released under $3,000 bond.

Court records show Hitchcock is currently serving five year's probation on charges of possession of marijuana over 20 grams in a February of 1983 arrest.

Major Frank Fogleman, of the Belle Glade Substation, said Mrs. Vann was arrested Tuesday afternoon at her Bacom Point Road business, Antique Reproduction Furniture.

Mills said the charge of delivery of marijuana is a relatively new statute and is a second degree felony.

Three men were arrested by undercover officers of the sheriff's department in the parking lot at the Glades Plaza Shopping Center, Tuesday, when they allegedly sold three ounces of cocaine, valued at $3,000, to the agents.

Fogleman said those arrested and charged with trafficking in cocaine were:

•Jesus Gonzales Borges, 23, 1890 Bacom Point Rd., Pahokee. Charges of conspiracy to traffic in cocaine were filed against Borges Wednesday. He was booked into the county jail under a $150,000 bond.

•Roger Williams, 43, 600 N.W. Ave. G Place, Belle Glade, was booked into the county jail under a bond of $150,000.

•Edwin Sotomayor Gonzalez, 26, 144 N.E. 3 Street, Belle Glade. Gonzalez was also charged with possession of a firearm while in the commission of a felony and booked into the county jail under a $150,000 bond.

Fogleman said a 1977 Ford pick up truck, belonging to Gonzalez, and a 1985 Volvo belonging to Borges, were confiscated in that arrest.

Fogleman added two handguns, a .44 magnum and a .38 caliber revolver, were found in Gonzalez's truck and confiscated.

The major said his department received information from a confidential source that enabled agents to work their way in to make the reported buy.

Browning said Monday's arrests were surrounded by unusual circumstances.

"We worked the cases separately and it's unusual that they all came together at the same time," he said.

Fogleman said more arrests were imminent as a result of the investigation.

foot concrete barrier would be constructed at the point when a business permit is applied for.

Finally, these changes were approved with the resolution that the walls be constructed upon application for the building permit.

The next zoning change presented by Harvin was more expansive and centered on rezoning of residences located at 651 S.E. Avenue E, 534 S.E. Ave. E, 616 S.E. Ave. E, 518 and 524 S.E. 7th Street. These residences are adjacent to the U-Save Supermarket which was damaged in an Oct. 2 fire.

B&B Groceries of Tampa, owners of the U-Save, plans to reconstruct the burned out supermarket and are negotiating for the purchase of the properties for business use.

Altman was again concerned about who would be responsible for constructing the "great wall of China" needed to separate the businesses from surrounding residences.

Harvin said that B&B agreed to build the necessary six foot wall following application for a building permit.

Susan Mackey, a local resident, asked how expansion would affect local traffic and housing.

Traffic flow, Mackey said, has slackened considerably since the Aug. 10, 1990, without the extension.

•Heard a report from Finance Director Frank Anderson that the city will lose about $18,000 following Congress' decision to cut federal revenue sharing funds by 8.6 percent this year.

•Heard a report from city manager W.E. "Tommy"

Strang regarding the purchase of five new police cars at a cost of $50,829. Discussion centered on buying the new cars in conjunction with auctioning off of the older cars.

•Opened bids for new golf carts for the municipal golf course. The winning company must be willing to accept the old carts on a trade-in.

•Recognized several Belle Glade citizens for service to the city, including Dudley Barnes, Pedro Gonzalez, Israel Diaz, Jo Knight, and Rupert Mock, Jr.

•Voted to donate $300 to Anna Houston for the annual Christmas program.

Hello, I'm Nancy Garrett

I am head teller at the Belle Glade office where my staff and I are the people our customers know best when it comes to personal banking. We provide a wide range of customer services, and, as head teller, I assist the other tellers and handle some management responsibilities.

I was born in Belle Glade where my father, James Sorrow, is superintendent of the city's water treatment plant. I graduated from Glades Day School and have attended Palm Beach Junior College.

I have been at the Bank of Pahokee for four years having started as a teller. I was promoted to my present position about two years ago. My husband, Billy, is a mechanic at the Sugar Cane Growers Co-Operative of Florida at Belle Glade.

Baking is my favorite leisure activity and I do as much as I can. Cake mixes are all right in a hurry but I prefer to bake cakes the old fashioned way, from scratch. My favorite is a sour cream pound cake which I make from scratch with a recipe I borrowed from my mother.
